

Association for Borderlands Studies

Journal of Borderlands Studies

Volume XV, Number 1, Spring 2000

Contents

European Perspectives on Borderlands

Edited by Joachim Blatter and Norris Clement

I. Dedication to Hans J. Briner

Paul Ganster, Lawrence Herzog, and Niles Hansen
Three North American Scholars Remember Hans Briner

Christian J. Haefliger
Hans J. Briner, Borderlands Visionary

II. Introduction to the Volume

Joachim Blatter and Norris Clement
Cross-Border Cooperation in Europe: Historical Development, Institutionalization, and Contrasts with North America

III. European Perspectives on Borderlands

Henk van Houtum
An Overview of European geographical Research on Borders and Border Regions

Doris Wastl-Walter and Andrea Ch. Kofler
European Integration and Border Related Institutions: A Practical Guide

Maria Lezzi
Transboundary Cooperation in Switzerland: Training for Europe

James Wesley Scott
Transboundary Cooperation on Germany's Borders: Strategic Regionalism through Multilevel Governance

Pertti Joenniemi
Bridging the Iron Curtain? Cooperation around the Baltic Rim

Matthew Sparke
"Chunnel Visions": Unpacking the Anticipatory Geographies of an Anglo-European Borderland

I. Szorenyine Kukorelli, L. Dancs, Z. Hajdu, J. Kugler, and I. Nagy
Hungary's Seven Border Regions

Heikki Eskelinen andd Pirjo Jukarainen
New Crossings at Different Borders: Finland

Martin van der Velde
On the Value of a Transatlantic Dialogue on Border Research
